PROFILE

Nora Feranecz

Resort Manager

Nora is newly appointed as resort manager of Six Senses Con Dao - set on Vietnam's breathtaking Con Son Island.

Nora graduated with Economist Diploma in Tourism and Hospitality industry, specialized in Wellness and Health Tourism. With more than 14 years' experience in the Hospitality industry with expertise in Room Division, Nora has been working across Europe, Middle East and Asia. With an extensive background and experience Nora has been working for Marriott Hotels in Budapest, Dubai, Athens and Paris.

Nora held roles as front office manager of W Maldives Retreat & Spa, director of guest services of The St. Regis Hotel Doha, villa operations manager of Anantara Mai Khao Phuket Villas, rooms division manager of Anantara Si Kao before becoming the operation manager of Amilla Fushi Resort in the Maldives.

Nora loves music and she can perform both piano and guitar, with a background as a talented student of the Music Academy in Hungary when she was a child.

Besides the love for travel and exploring new cultures, she is also interested in languages. During all her travels, she has been passionate to discover the language of the destination. This keen interest has resulted in basic communication abilities in 9 languages! She is eager to learn Vietnamese as her 10th language.
