Year of the Dragon

The Dragon (Long) is one of Vietnam's Four Holy Animals, alongside the Unicorn, the Turtle, and the Phoenix. Symbolizing power, wisdom, and authority, the Dragon represents strength, courage, creativity, and innovation, ushering in a year brimming with potential and opportunity.

Drawing inspiration from the dragon's attributes, Six Senses Con Dao has curated an exclusive blend of adventure and indulgence for our guests during the Tet season. Whether you savor the traditions of Lunar New Year's Eve family dinner, immerse yourself in the vibrant Lion dance show, partake in Vietnamese Tet and Chung cake festivities, or indulge in rejuvenating wellness programs for mental renewal and positive energy, our aim is to provide a transformative experience. Six Senses Con Dao not only invites you to celebrate the auspicious Year of the Dragon but also offers a holistic journey to usher in a renewed version of yourself.

We look forward with great anticipation to welcoming you during this extraordinary season at Six Senses Con Dao.

Family traditional activities during Tet

Families may participate in some of the following:

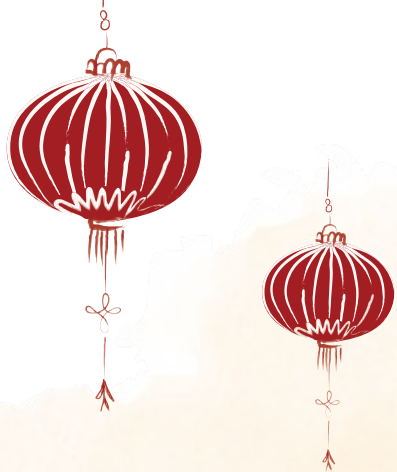

Family parties: Enjoying Tết Niên (the last meal of the old year) together to share all the experiences of the year. Families take time to embrace the traditions, show respect to the elderly and strengthen the relationships between family members.

New Year's Greetings: People wish each other prosperity and luck for the new year with traditional greetings such as:

1. Chúc mừng năm mới – Happy New Year
2. Cung chúc tân xuân – Gracious wishes of the new Spring
3. An khang thịnh vượng – Security, peace, good health, wealth and prosperity
4. Vạn sự như ý – May your wishes come true
5. Sức khỏe dồi dào – Plenty of health
6. Cung hỷ phát tài – Literally “Happy money come to you”
7. Tiền vô như nước – Money keep flowing in like water

In Vietnamese culture you are 1 year old when you are born and everybody ages by 1 year at Tết. Children wish their parents and grandparents health and longevity with the greeting Sống lâu trăm tuổi – “Long life over 100 years”

Chung Cake and Watermelon in Tet Traditions

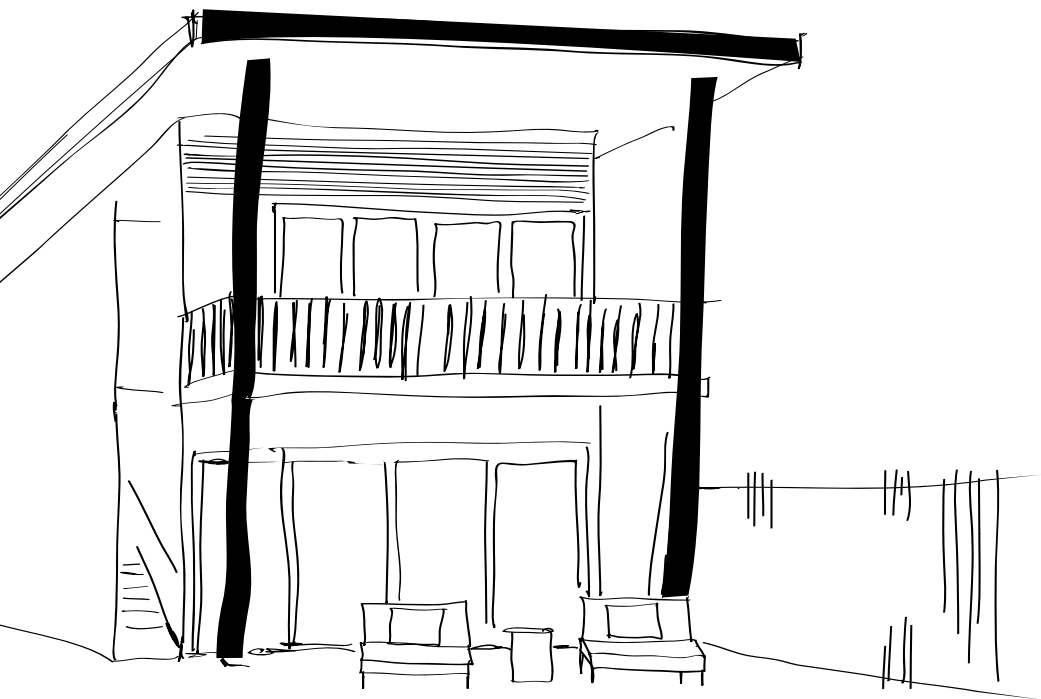

In the vibrant tapestry of Tet traditions, Chung cake and watermelon hold a significant place, each symbolizing unique facets of Vietnamese culture and the joyous spirit of the Lunar New Year.

Chung cake is distinguished by its vibrant green color, derived from the incorporation of banana leaves into the glutinous rice mixture. This special rendition symbolizes springtime and the rejuvenation of nature, reflecting hopes for a prosperous and bountiful year ahead.

Alongside this culinary tradition, the watermelon holds its own significance during Tet. Beyond its refreshing taste, the watermelon represents fertility, good fortune, and the promise of a fruitful year. Its red interior symbolizes luck and prosperity, making it a popular fruit during Tet celebrations.

What does a Lion dance represent?

During Tết Vietnamese people will watch and enjoy a Lion Dance performance. It is said that the dance stands for good luck, prosperity and health.

A Lion Dance is accompanied with at least one Laughing Buddha (Jester), who will help to bring more entertainment and fun to the show. At Six Senses Con Dao, our Lion Dance performance will bring happiness, signifying for an optimistic New Year.
